

WANT TO DEEPEN YOUR COMMITMENT TO RACIAL JUSTICE
THIS BLACK HISTORY MONTH?
LOOKING FOR STRATEGIES TO CONFRONT BIAS AND INEQUITY IN YOUR EVERYDAY LIFE?

HAVING THE HARD CONVERSATIONS: STRATEGIES FOR DISCUSSING RACISM WITH KIDS

Participants will learn ways to address and redress their own racial biases. Caregivers will leave equipped with resources on ways to talk about prejudice with kids of all ages. This free event for adult community members will be lead by:

Eric Fieldman, CHS History teacher, faculty lead of the CHS Social Justice Club
Arden Niessner, CMS Social Studies Teacher, faculty lead of the CMS Social Justice

Tuesday, 2/19

6:30-8:00 PM

Collingswood Public Library

Hosted by the Collingswood Educational Advocacy Group
To register for this event: Eventbrite

For more about CEAG: www.CollingswoodEducation.org

On Facebook: @theCEAG