

PRESENTATION AT THIS MONTH'S CEAG MEETING

IT ALL RUNS DOWNHILL

Rainwater in the Neighborhood

TUESDAY, 4/16

6:30 - 8:30 PM

COLLINGSWOOD PUBLIC LIBRARY

This month's Collingswood Educational Advocacy Group meeting will feature a special presentation by

Lorraine Prince

head of the Newton Creek Watershed Association and nature educator at Saddler's Wood

- Adults will have a chance to learn more about how watershed works
- Kids will participate in a hands-on enviroscape presentation to learn how pollution ends up in our water and how personal choices can make a difference.

Gardening goodies such as free wildflower seeds and rain garden instructions will be given away and participants will have a chance to sign up for an upcoming clean up at Saddler's Wood.
